CoderDojo Athenry

Python/Pygame

Notes by Michael Madden & Declan Fox, 2014

Today's Challenge: Prepare to Earn A New Belt!

CoderDojo Athenry

www.coderdojo.com

CoderDojo Athenry

www.coderdojo.com

CoderDojo Athenry

www.coderdojo.com

Belts!

Can Earn White, Yellow or Blue

White: Commitment & Basic Skill

CoderDojo Athenry

www.coderdojo.com

Attend at least 5 sessions

+ Know how to get started with Python

Sign in each week!

Can Earn White, Yellow or Blue

Yellow Belt: Competent Python Coder

CoderDojo Athenry www.coderdojo.com

- 1. Qualify for a White Belt
- Show a basic understanding of Python
 Open a program and show you understand some of the following Variables, Loops, Decisions, Functions, Lists and Modules

Can Earn White, Yellow or Blue

Green Belt: Skilled Python/Pygame Coder

- 1. Create a program with either Python or Pygame
- 2. Python must have variables, loops and decisions, lists, functions
- 3. Pygame must have user created sprites, variables, loops and decisions and lists
- 4. Must be all your own work

Procedure for Earning Belts

A mentor will chat with you

Show us your code: old or new

Explain what you did and how you did it

Tell us which code is new and which is reused from other people's work

Earning a Belt

Learn skills each week

Put skills into practice

Get recognition: belts awarded by mentors

Applying for a Belt

Decide what belt level you want to go for

Attend the full session on the Belt Awards Day

Be prepared

Fairness

- Nobody has a right to a belt: it must be earned
- We will help you get there
 The whole Dojo mentors, parents, all members
 We will give you feedback for next time if you did not make it
- ➤ We will be clear about what is required to get to the next belt level

Belts & Levels

- We are following agreed CoderDojo standards
- White belts for commitment & basic skills
- Yellow belts for competence in a specific coding discipline
- Higher belts for higher level skills in a specific discipline
- You have to earn a lower belt before moving to a higher one
- When you start a new coding discipline, have to go back to start in applying for a belt

What if I Don't Get a Belt?

If you can't participate, or it doesn't go well for you, don't worry!

We will have another belt awarding session in the coming months

Ask Your Questions!

CoderDojo Athenry

www.coderdojo.com

CoderDojo Athenry

www.coderdojo.com

CoderDojo Athenry www.coderdojo.com